Financing for the Course

The course does not extend credit to participants. Suggestions for financial assistance:

Ask friends and family to contribute to tuition, perhaps as a holiday scholarship fund or in trade for your future permaculture classes or consulting.

Apply to the Permaculture Credit Union for a low-interest permaculture student loan.

Loans are issued in as little as a day once you fax the required information.

For details, call toll-free (866) 954-3479 or go to www.pcuonline.org.

For more information, please call Sandy at (719) 539-7685
